Evolving the Etheric Body

Combing Health Rays

Combing Health Rays

Def: Generating vitality and delivering Prana to fibrous energy streams that feed the Etheric electromagnetic field or aura. The Health Rays can extend perpendicularly 12” off of a vibrantly healthy body. They can be perceived as bent, parallel to the body, and as short as 1” or less from the Etheric Aura. The overall health of the individual is influenced by the Health Rays and the Health Rays conversely influence the overall health of the individual.

Description

When clearing Etheric energy, it is appropriate to Comb Health Rays as part of the overall treatment strategy. Health Rays are extremely subtle, and may take time and careful, attentive practice to discern their energy and experience their vibrational signature.

Combing Health Rays is done using the fingertip chakras along with the fingers themselves to ‘run fingers through the hair.’ It’s a very similar motion to running fingers through long hair. The ‘roots’ of the Health Rays are near the surface of the skin, and extend outwards as far as 12” off of the body.

Using the fingertip chakras, place the hands in the Aura/EMF approximately 12” off of the body. Directing full awareness to the tips of the fingers, move the hands in the Aura and ‘sense’ the Health Rays.

Traverse the entire length of the body so that there is awareness of the shallow spots where energy is depleted or lacking vibrancy. The Health Rays will be closer to their roots where there is a vitality problem or depletion issue.

Clear and/or Infuse the Etheric chakra with Prana, and then Comb Health Rays around the organ, chakra to enhance vitality. The goal is to offer the body as much as it would like to receive in that moment in time. Through focused intention and attention, listen for the body’s indication that it has received enough Pranic flow.

In general, it is nice to complete Etheric clearing and infusing work with Combing Healing Rays.

Background

The body is an integrated system – the organs, glands, systems harmonize (ideally) to generate a flow state and coherence that manifests as healthy organism.

The quality of Etheric energy influences the overall vitality of the patient. Energy healing that is delivered to the Etheric field is generally a combination of clearing and infusing. The work is quite simply, clearing low quality etheric energy and infusing Prana.

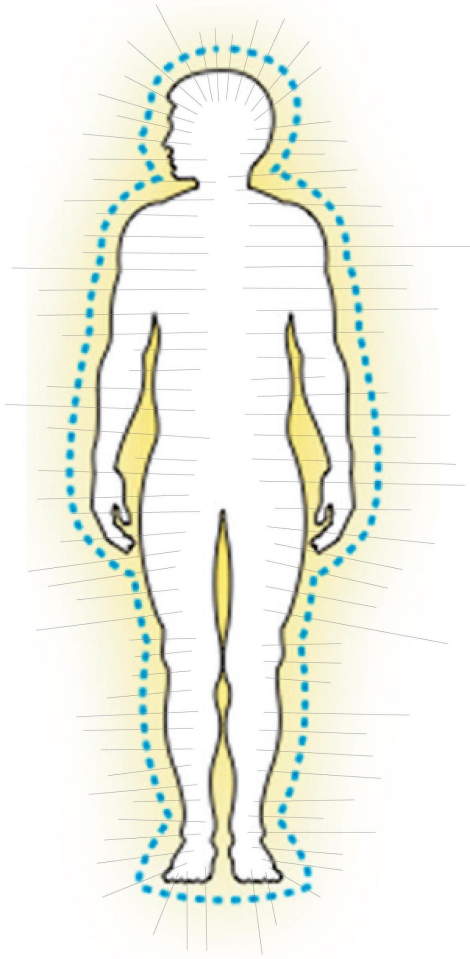

Combing Health Rays is a direct intervention (although more infusion-centric than clearing-centric) to support an increase in the quality of Etheric energy and the overall vitality of the individual.

It is less productive to conduct at the beginning of an Etheric clearing session. As chakras are cleared and infused, their vibration is modified. The Health Rays are part of the Etheric energy system and will be affected (even if slightly) by the global clearing and infusing taking place.

Thus prior to a final infusion of the Etheric field, Combing Health Rays is generally an appropriate way to wrap up an Etheric treatment.

Practitioners who have highly sensitized hand and fingertip chakras will discern the Health Ray energy. Those who carry less energetic sensitivity will use their intuitive awareness, Clairvoyance System and the ability to dialogue an energy body to gather the information needed about proceeding with Combing Health Rays.

Illustration: Combing Health Rays

Health Rays are Etheric energy strands that extend perpendicularly from the body. The Health Rays are part of the delivery system of energy to the Nadis. On a healthy, vibrant body, the Health Rays extend about 12" away from the surface of the skin. On a diseased or unhealthy body, the Health Rays could lie flat, or extend a few inches away from the surface of the skin. Combing the Health Rays increases energy supply and supports the delivery of increased Pranic flow to the Nadis, and ultimately the Etheric energy body.

With Etheric/hands-On Hygiene Protocols in place

Bring your awareness to the 2nd sub-plane of the Etheric

Invite the patient to match you in the 2nd sub-plane (silently)

Extend your hands in to the patient's Aura/EMF, resting them approximately 12" off of the body

Bringing awareness to the fingertip chakras, move your hands in the field and sense for the energy of the Health Rays
(some report spark-like energy, some feel wispy strands)

Note their location on the body and travel the plane of the Rays

Clear & Infuse Etheric chakras where vitality is low, then Comb Health Rays

When low vitality places are addressed, Comb Health Rays from head to toe

Complete treatment and Etheric/hands on Hygiene Protocols as appropriate
